

Article A

Thieves get away with precious antiques

By SZ Cal

An antique shop in Little India was broken into at about 3am yesterday and the thieves got away with antiques worth over $20,000.

When interviewed, the owner, Mr LK Lim, reveals that he suspects the mastermind was someone familiar with the store's operations and routines. The locks of the store's gate were not damaged and the thieves managed to turn off the store's closed-circuit cameras before looting the store.

The police is still investigating the case. Anyone with information can contact the Police hotline at 61234567.

Article B

Looted of precious antiques

By LY Leong

A shop in Little India was robbed of precious antiques, the most expensive one worth $5,000.

Based on information by the owner, the police suspects that it was an inside job.

Anyone with information can contact the Police hotline at 61234567.