

Social Studies - ISSUES INVESTIGATION MADE EASY!

Need help with finding credible information for your Issues Investigation project?

The National Library Board (NLB) can help! You can use the library's FREE database, ProQuest Central, to help you gather information from credible sources such as newspapers (e.g. The Straits Times) and magazines (e.g. Newsweek)

Step 1

Google "NLB eResources" and select the "eresources.nlb.gov.sg" website

Step 2

Click on "Login" to create a FREE myLibrary ID account to use the library's eResources

Step 3

Next, click on the "Secondary School Students" tab

Step 4

Under "Popular eResources", select "ProQuest Central" (where you can access local and overseas newspapers)

Popular eResources

- ProQuest central
- eReads
- Library PressDisplay

ProQuest Central is the largest single periodical resource available, bringing together 30 complete databases covering over 160 subject areas. With its intuitive, easy-to-use interface, you can explore topics such as Business, Health & Medical, Social Sciences, Education, Science and Technology, as well as core titles in the Performing and Visual Arts, History, Religion, Philosophy, Language and Literature, and thousands of full-text newspapers.

Step 5

Type in your project topic and do a search

Tip

Use the 'Narrow results' tab on the left to further filter and streamline your searches (e.g. by type, date, publication titles)

For example, you can type in your Research Topic and desired source:

"Racial Harmony" Topic and "The Straits Times" Source
 "Globalization and Singapore" Topic and "Newsweek" Source
